

APPOINTMENTS

Sponsored by elp
emergency lighting products

NEWS & BUSINESS

www.elp.uk.com

Will Chelsom has been promoted to Joint Managing Director of Chelsom as the company further consolidates its position as a leading designer, manufacturer and supplier of decorative lighting to the international hospitality and marine markets.

NanoLumens, the manufacturer and marketer of LED display visualization solutions, announced the appointment of F.A. (Fran) Dramis to serve as Chairman of the Board of the rapidly growing and expanding company.

Amitex LED Lighting is delighted to welcome Robbie Sutherland to its sales team as Regional Sales Manager for Scotland, the North East & Cumbria. Robbie brings with him over 11 years experience in the lighting industry, having previously worked for Danic Lighting of Glasgow.

GLP US Inc. has announced some organisational changes, including two new appointments to its staff. Moving within the company is Greville Kellett, who has taken on the newly created position of Internal Sales Manager, strengthening the company's commitment to its customers and the service they receive. The position of West Coast Sales Manager will now be taken by new appointment, Dave Barten. Dave joins GLP having worked in the lighting industry for many years, along with a long history working in the exhibit industry with a strong focus on the integration of lighting within corporate presentations. Also newly appointed to the company is Brian McNutt, who joins in the role of Product Specialist.

Helvar has announced the appointment of Outi Suoninen to the new role of Sales Director, Luminaire Manufacturers. Outi will be responsible for Helvar sales and profitability for the luminaire manufacturers sales channel.

Chroma-Q® is pleased to announce the appointment of 30 year industry veteran, John Fuller, as the company's Chroma-Q Global Brand Manager - effective immediately. This position is a result of Chroma-Q's continued strong ongoing growth in the global entertainment and commercial lighting markets.

Tridonic UK has announced the appointment of Kevin Purcell, formerly of Helvar, to the role of Area Sales Manager for both linear and LED components to the lighting industry.

Czech Republic-based lighting manufacturer Robe Lighting has appointed Adam Camp as Regional Sales Manager of the Western United States.

HSL continues its recent management restructuring with the appointment of Harrison Cooke as Technical Operations Manager.

Leading UK lighting manufacturer Factorylux has recruited Chris Schulkins as a London-based Sales Manager.

As a result of Elation's continued growth in the European market, Elation Professional B.V. is pleased to announce three new hires at its European headquarter office in Kerkrade, The Netherlands.

Dennis Scipio joined Elation Europe on October 1st as a new Key Account Manager. Responsible for managing some of Elation's most strategically important customers while helping to grow the business. Also joining Elation on October 1st and working as the European office's new office assistant is Nancy de Lang. Nancy comes to Elation from The Netherlands-based industrial manufacturer Kobelco Welding of Europe B.V., where she worked as a Production Planner and Administrator. She will be handling a variety of administrative tasks in her new position as well as customer contact.

Joining Elation in August as an assistant in the company's marketing and graphics department is Carola Luderemann. Carola's responsibilities include general marketing duties such as catalogue and ad creation, web page maintenance, product photography and social media.